4. In terms of the Commission's notification SRO 1003(I)/2015 dated October 15, 2015, the powers to adjudicate cases under section 158 of the Ordinance have been delegated to Director (Corporate Supervision Department).

5. Before proceeding to decide this case, I consider it necessary to highlight the importance of the strict observance of the aforesaid mandatory provisions of the law. The protection of the investors / shareholders is one of the primary objectives of the Ordinance. The investors / shareholders provide seed money for capital formation. If the interest of the investors is protected, they will save the money and invest more. Shareholders of the company other than those who are themselves or are being represented on the board of directors have very limited role in decision making. General meeting is an important event for the shareholders since it is a forum where main aspects of the corporate and financial life of the company are deliberated and approved. For a minority shareholder, such meeting is often the only forum to obtain information on the company's operations and question the management regarding the company's affairs. . In the case at hand the respondents had acquired a non-operational listed company with a commitment turn its fortune and bring relief to the shareholders. However, the respondents have acted in an oppressive manner and even denied shareholders the one opportunity to obtain firsthand information regarding the affairs of the company.

6. Holding AGM within the stipulated time is a requirement of law but unfortunately it has been noted that the directors of the Company have not observed the compulsory requirements of law and deprived the shareholders their basic right as envisaged in law by not holding AGM within stipulated time, therefore, default in terms of Section 158 of the Ordinance stands established.

7. Keeping in view of the above I, hereby, while invoking the provisions of Section 158 of the Ordinance, impose fine amounting to Rs. 100,000/- (Rupees one hundred thousand only) per director/chief executive.

Name of Respondents	Amount in Rupees
Mr. Farooq Ahmed, Chief Executive	100,000
Mr. Mehmood Ur Rehman, Director	100,000
Mr. Muhammad Ishaq Malik, Director	100,000
Mr. Muhammad Taloot, Director	100,000
