glad we trusted our instincts.

"I'm here today because he's not only a business partner to me, this is one of the best friends I've known in the world. I'll say it's much more fun to be his friend than it is his enemy.

ries of films.

The 29-year-old actress reprises her role as Harley Quinn from 'Suicide Squad' in the new DC Extended Universe movie, which boasts a female-led cast that includes Mary Elizabeth Winstead as Huntress and Jurnee Bros. Pictures and DC Films have planned.

Speaking at the film's world premiere in London, Margot said: "I, of course, have big wishes for many things we could do in the DC Universe, but no, nothing official." Margot recently hinted at a new direction for her character, suggesting that Harley Quinn could become acquainted with fellow Gotham City villain Poison Ivy in a future film.

She said: "I've been pushing a Poison Ivy reunion for a long time. I've been really working that angle for a long
