Public Announcement Share Holders Data Textiles Limited.

The general public/investors are hereby informed that under the orders of the Honorable Lahore High Court dated Jan 11th, 2023, the winding up order against Data Textiles Limited (Company) stands recalled and the Company has been revived. With this order, the trading in the shares of the company having PSX Ticker: DATM, is likely to start sometimes soon.

With regards to the measures to be adopted for the removal of the causes of suspension, the Company, on an immediate basis, is kick-starting an online/e-commerce trading business for the direct to consumers' sale of bedsheets and towels in association with some already existing online platforms. Subsequently and possibly in the short to medium term, the company plans to merge its shares with LSE Ventures Limited (LVL) and LSE PropTech Limited (LPL). Upon approval from the Honorable High Court, each shareholder of DATM shall receive the shares of two companies, i.e, LVL and LPL, as per the swap ratio to be allowed by the Honorable Court. Thereafter, the online trading business of the Company shall continue under LVL, while the platform technology function shall be concentrated within LPL.

Published in compliance with Rule 5.13 of PSX Rulebook by the Company Secretary for and on behalf of Data Textiles Limited.
