Subject: Material Information through Corporate Announcement # 4

Dear Sir,

In compliance with Section 96 of the Securities Act, 2015 and Clause 5.6.1(a) of the Code of Corporate Governance as prescribed in the Pakistan Stock Exchange ("PSX") Rule Book, we are pleased to announce the following material information:

Maersk West and Central Asia Limited, a global shipping, transport and logistics services company ("Maersk"), has appointed Secure Logistics Group Limited (the "Company" or "SLGL") as its onshore logistics partner. This strategic partnership aligns with SLGL's continued commitment to expanding its logistics services portfolio.

In addition, Maersk and the Company are also engaged in discussions regarding a similar arrangement under SLG's TIR License, whereby the Company will provide logistics services to Maersk starting with the Regional Markets up to the Central Asian Countries.

Whereas, the domestic services are scheduled to commence by end September 2024, the Regional Services are expected from end October/early November 2024.

This announcement is made in accordance with the relevant regulatory requirements and aims to keep our valued shareholders and the public informed about the latest developments in our business operations.

Sincerely,

Faisal Atta
Company Secretary
