On Tuesday, banks, foreign exchange companies and gold traders were briefed on the benefit of such currencies.

events of May 9.

In his letter, Mr Ayub urged the CJP to initiate a judicial inquiry into allegations of misconduct by police and prosecutors and to reopen concluded trials.

"This letter is a solemn appeal on behalf of myself, my party, and the many Pakistani citizens who have been caught up in the web of rushed and unfair May 9 trials currently being conducted in multiple cities," Mr Ayub wrote.

"The Anti-Terrorism Courts (ATCs) in Lahore, Faisalabad, Sargodha, and other cities are hearing cases related to May 9 with a speed and manner that shocks the conscience of any impartial observer".

"Hearings commence early morning and extend late into the night; in fact,

"I would request those media friends who report from Adiala to only broadcast exactly what Khan sahib says. It is inappropriate to take things out of context, selectively, or to present conversations according to their own wishes."

In a follow-up post, the PTI central information secretary said: "There should be no doubt in anyone's mind that Imran Khan's children will come to Pakistan. So far, only the date for this has yet to be determined. And everyone should remember that when they decided to come, they clearly told their father that we are not seeking your permission but informing you. So, avoid these propagandas because they are of no use."

While terming the matter "one drama among many dramas", Minister of Defence Khawaja Asif said the purpose was "not the meeting of father and children but political gain. No move by the founder happens without political or financial gain".

it is reliably reported that in some cases, proceedings continue until 2am to 3am. This is neither justice delayed nor justice served — this is justice crushed and justice buried under the weight of exhaustion, coercion and haste."

Mr Ayub also accused the authorities of using the trials for political persecution, alleging that police reports and prosecutions lacked credible evidence and were marked by procedural irregularities.

While claiming that media access to these trials has been severely restricted, he said: "The courts must stand as bulwarks against tyranny, and when constitutional rights are trampled, it is their duty to restore justice and equity."
