Subject: Update on Pending Matters

Dear Sir,

The Company hereby informs the Exchange that three (3) separate civil proceedings have been initiated between different sponsors, with the Company named as a party in each matter.

At present, no adverse order has been passed in any of the aforementioned matters. All cases are pending adjudication before the competent courts and are currently sub judice.

The Company is monitoring the proceedings closely and shall make further disclosures, if and when required, in accordance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

This is for the information of the Exchange and the shareholders.

Yours truly,

For Unity Foods Limited
