Dear Sir,

Re: Order of the United States District Court in New York

In accordance with Section 96 of the Securities Act, 2015 and Clause 5.6.1(a) of the Rule Book of the Pakistan Stock Exchange Limited, we hereby convey the following information:

TRG Pakistan Limited (the “Company”) has received a copy of an Order issued on 10 June 2026 (the “Order”) by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (“SDNY”) restraining the Company’s former CEO Mr. Zia Chishti from pursuing litigation in any forum based on conduct alleged in the Released Claims, defined as those claims released in the SDNY ruling issued on 12 May 2026 (the “12 May Ruling”). The Order will remain in effect until 1 July 2026. The SDNY has directed further briefing from the parties and is expected to consider whether additional injunctive relief should be granted.

This Order follows the 12 May Ruling which stated that claims by Mr. Chishti against the Company and its affiliates relating to actions undertaken prior to the 10 January 2022 date of the Release Agreement are forever released and cannot be adjudicated in any forum worldwide.

Many of the Released Claims formed the basis of various litigation proceedings initiated by Mr. Chishti against the Company and its affiliates in multiple forums, including a petition (JCM 12 of 2025) for shareholder oppression in the Sindh High Court.

The SDNY Order added that it had also previously preliminarily enjoined Mr. Chishti from asserting claims filed in a US arbitration in Pakistani litigation and stated that the same reasoning applies in this case.

The Company is reviewing its legal options in light of this development.

Sincerely,
For and on behalf of
TRG Pakistan Limited
