Subject: Disclosure of Material Information – Execution of Non-Binding Memorandum of Understanding with Anhui Xinhuida New Material Technology Co., Ltd.

Dear Sir,

In compliance with Section 96 of the Securities Act, 2015 and Clause 5.6.1 of the Pakistan Stock Exchange Rule Book, Loads Limited ("Loads" or "the Company") hereby discloses that it has entered into a non-binding Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") with Anhui Xinhuida New Material Technology Co., Ltd. ("Xinhuida"), a company incorporated in the People's Republic of China engaged in the recycling, processing, manufacturing, and trading of copper, advanced copper materials, and technology-intensive industrial products.

Xinhuida operates an integrated platform covering recycled copper rods, copper processing, copper products, power and communication cables, EV wiring systems, digital energy harnesses, PV connectors, semiconductor-related components, and other advanced copper-based materials and products.

The MOU provides a framework to explore potential cooperation in the copper sector in Pakistan and international markets. Areas of collaboration may include copper trading, processing, manufacturing, exports, strategic investments, technology transfer, supply chain integration, and related commercial opportunities.

Pursuant to the MOU, the parties intend to initially pursue copper trading and supply chain opportunities while evaluating a potential joint venture in Pakistan for investment in copper, advanced copper materials, value-added products, and technology-intensive industrial businesses. The parties may also jointly assess potential acquisition opportunities in the copper manufacturing sector in Pakistan to serve as a platform for expansion and export-oriented growth.

The cooperation may further include establishment of new manufacturing facilities, technology transfer, development of export-oriented operations, and introduction of advanced copper materials, components, wiring solutions, and energy infrastructure products for domestic and international markets.

All proposed arrangements, including any joint venture or acquisition, remain subject to due diligence, negotiation of definitive agreements, and all necessary corporate and regulatory approvals. No binding obligation exists on either party except customary confidentiality undertakings.

Shareholders and investors are advised that discussions are at a preliminary stage and there is no assurance that any transaction will materialize. Accordingly, they are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the securities of the Company.
