Subject: Disclosure of Material Information – Expansion of Export Activities and Dispatch of Export Orders to the United Arab Emirates (UAE)

Dear Sir,

In compliance with Section 96 of the Securities Act, 2015 and Clause 5.6.1 of the Pakistan Stock Exchange Rule Book, Wahdat Poultry Farm Limited (the "Company") hereby informs its shareholders and the investing public that the Company has expanded its export activities to the United Arab Emirates (UAE), with increased orders and shipments of its premium-quality enriched eggs.

During September 2026, the Company has dispatched four containers against export orders placed by its high-end customers in the UAE. A further three containers are currently in process and are expected to be dispatched during the last week of September 2026. These shipments collectively represent a total of 6,867 cases of the Company's premium-quality enriched eggs.

The increase in export activities is expected to contribute positively to the Company's revenue through increased sales volumes and generation of foreign exchange earnings. The Company intends to further strengthen its presence in regional export markets and explore additional opportunities to expand its international customer base.

Management remains committed to pursuing sustainable growth through both domestic and export channels and will continue to keep the Exchange and shareholders informed of any further material developments relating to the Company's export operations.

The above information is being disseminated to the market in compliance with applicable laws and regulations.
