PAC questions failure to turn rubbish into revenue or electricity

OUR CORRESPONDENT KARACHI

Sindh's Public Accounts Committee (PAC) has exposed a four-year delay in implementing the 2021 amendments to the Sindh Solid Waste Management Board Act, with divisional boards yet to be constituted and the institution still operating without the rules required under the amended law. The disclosure came as lawmakers questioned why Karachi's waste management system, despite consuming Rs24 billion annually, had failed to generate revenue from the city's rubbish or produce electricity from it.

At its meeting on Thursday, chaired by Nisar Khuhro, the PAC directed the Local Government people, including 58 women have been murdered in Faisalabad so far this year

When Shehzad began laying the foundations for a marriage hall, Faisal and others allegedly objected. Shehzad then called Hakeem and his associates, leading to a confrontation in which Bosta was killed in the exchange of fire, the SHO said.

Meanwhile, District Bar Association President Mian Muhammad Tariq and Secretary Chaudhry Kaleemullah Gul condemned the registration of the case against Hakeem, describing the FIR as baseless.

The association observed a strike on Thursday and lawyers stayed away from court proceedings. Gul demanded that the authorities quash the false FIR and stop harassment of lawyers.

Statistics show that 210 people, including 58 women, have been murdered in Faisalabad district during the current year so far.

Seven people, including two women, were killed in the district during the past week.

During the past week, a man and his son were killed in Chak Jhumra police, a woman and her daughter in the Factory Area, a woman in Mamun Kanjan and a young man in Tandianwala.

ORAQZ/MIAN. The Anti-Corruption Establishment arrested a union council secretary and a poon for allegedly Rs20,000 for registering a birth. According to a statement issued by the ACT, Caid UC Secretary Muhammad Iqbal Leghari and poon Muhammad Zafar were arrested and handed while receiving the bribe from a complainant. The arrests were made by Circle Officer Shehzad Gul under the supervision of Magistrate Jawad Zafar. Marked currency notes were recovered during the action. The suspects had allegedly demanded and received Rs20,000 from the complainant for the birth registration. AP

Corpse found in canal

BAHAWALPUR. The corpse of a 35-year-old woman was found floating in a canal passing through Dera Nawab Sahib. The Bahawalpur Rescue Control Room received a call from Dera Nawab police, reporting that the unidentified woman aged about 35 had been found dead in a small canal. By the time rescue personnel arrived at the scene, police officers present there had retrieved the body from the canal. The police took the body into custody for legal proceedings and shifted it to a hospital morgue for post-mortem. AP

Man slain, suspect takes own life

BAHAWALPUR. A man allegedly shot and killed an other citizen before taking his own life on Thursday. According to police sources, a local resident, identified as Muhammad Nadeem Nalich, opened fire on Hassan Panwar. As a result of the shooting, Panwar died on the spot. Following the killing, the suspect turned the weapon on himself and died at the spot. Upon receiving information about the incident, the police shifted the bodies to a hospital. AP

Food outlets penalised

CHAK. The Punjab Food Authority (PFA) imposed fines totalling Rs35,000 on nine food outlets during 71 inspections across Gujrat district for violating food safety and hygiene standards. According to officials, the authority issued 36 notices to food businesses over hygiene-related violations. During the inspections, officials discarded eight litres of hazardous cooking oil, five kilograms of expired food items infested with insects and two litres of unclean drinking water. AP

Woman takes own life

BAHAWALPUR. A 30-year-old woman died allegedly after consuming pesticide over a domestic dispute. According to reports, Anna, wife of Imrati Ali, was shifted to a hospital, but died during treatment. Man, son killed in road accident

OUR CORRESPONDENT

CHITRAWA. A speeding tractor ran over a motorcycle near National Highway Beat No 16 on the Lahore-Multan Road bypass, killing a father and his teenage son and seriously injuring their relative.

The deceased were identified as 55-year-old Manzoor Ahmed and his 17-year-old son, Abdul Rehman. The injured man, 25 year old Zeeshan, was shifted to hospital for treatment.

Manzoor Ahmed and Abdul Rehman belonged to village 495/E8 in Burewala, while Zeeshan was a resident of Milan Channa.

The three had travelled to village 39/2-L in Chichwa Watali to attend a wedding ceremony.

Rescue teams reached the scene after receiving information about the accident and shifted the bodies and the injured man to the Tehsil Headquarters (THQ) Hospital. Sadar Chichwa Watali police and motorway police also reached the site. Police took the tractor involved in the accident into custody and launched an investigation.

Ajmal, senior manager at WWF-Pakistan, also contributed to the event, alongside Dr Zameer Bin Babar, assistant professor at the University of the Punjab, Lahore.

Commissioner Faisalabad Dr Imran Hamid Sheikh addressed the issue of air pollution and seasonal smog, stressing the need for coordinated efforts to improve air quality.

He appreciated WWF-Pakistan's work on water replenishment and air pollution monitoring in the city.

Participants highlighted the importance of reliable air quality data, nature conservation and stronger cooperation among government institutions, academia and environmental organisations to tackle pollution and protect public health. Representatives of the Environmental Protection Agency and the Faisalabad Chamber of Commerce and Industry also took part in the discussion.

In his closing remarks, Government College University Faisalabad Vice Chancellor Dr Rauf-Azam appreciated WWF-Pakistan's initiatives and called for collective efforts to address environmental challenges.
